

FLIPPER: THE NEW ADVENTURES

June Broadcast Schedule May 31, 2010 - June 27, 2010

Air Date @ 4pm	Program #	Title	Synopsis
Monday-May 31	'0121	Flipper Speaks	At the dolphin Institute, Aphrodite swims about the lagoon as Keith uses his echolocation transmitting device to emit clicks and whistles to her. As Aphrodite responds with clicks of her own, a computer translates her sounds into audible speech. She says, "Feed Aphrodite mackerel!" via the computer voice. Rival scientist Dr. Albert Vanhoff arrives at the Institute as a guest of Pam. Seeing Keith at work, he immediately dismisses Keith's invention as a fairy tale.
Tuesday-June 1	0201	Wedding Bells	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Wednesday-June 2	0202	Sea Horse	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Thursday-June 3	0203	White Dolphin	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Friday-June 4	0204	Ghost Ship	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.

FLIPPER: THE NEW ADVENTURES

June Broadcast Schedule May 31, 2010 - June 27, 2010

Air Date @ 1230pm	Program #	Title	Synopsis
Monday-June 7	0205	The Sword of Carlos De Cabral	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Tuesday-June 8	0206	Radio Free Flipper	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Wednesday-June 9	0207	Day At The Boat Races	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Thursday-June 10	0208	Maternity Test	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Friday-June 11	0209	Best of The Beach	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.

FLIPPER: THE NEW ADVENTURES

June Broadcast Schedule May 31, 2010 - June 27, 2010

Air Date @ 1230pm	Program #	Title	Synopsis
Monday-June 14	0210	Paradise Found	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Tuesday-June 15	0211	Ebb Tide	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Wednesday-June 16	0212	Flipper Goes to Miami	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Thursday-June 17	0213	Liong Weekend	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Friday-June 18	0214	Beach Music	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.

FLIPPER: THE NEW ADVENTURES

June Broadcast Schedule May 31, 2010 - June 27, 2010

Air Date @ 1230pm	Program #	Title	Synopsis
Monday-June 21	0215	Help Me, Rhonda	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Tuesday-June 22	0216	La Sirene Maya	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Wednesday-June 23	0217	Mermaid Island	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Thursday-June 24	0218	On Th e Ropes	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.
Friday-June 25	0219	Retribution Beach	A remake of the classic '60s show, the series was updated for the 90's with more action, exciting adventures, far better underwater cinematography, and most importantly, a young Jessica Alba. The new weekly series takes place in and around the Bal Harbor Institute, a marine mammal research facility set in the beautiful Florida Keys, where ground-breaking studies are being conducted on dolphin behavior. The institute and the new Monroe County Search & Rescue Sheriff's Substation, set the stage for highly dramatic air an sea rescues involving Flipper, one of the most loved and enduring TV characters of all time, and his human companions.