FAMILYNET'S ORIGINAL PROGRAMS "EVERYDAY" WITH MARCUS & LISA AND JUDIE BYRD'S KITCHEN RECEIVED HONORS AT THE 2009 CABLEFAX AWARDS LUNCHEON

(ATLANTA), September 17, 2009 – FamilyNet's original programs "EveryDay" with Marcus & Lisa and Judie Byrd's Kitchen were recognized amongst cable industry leaders and executives during the 2009 CableFAX Awards luncheon at the Grand Hyatt Hotel in New York City. The CableFAX Awards ceremony brings together the best programmers and the top operators, honoring those who create amazing content and those who excel in offering it to the viewers.

CableFAX, a trusted brand that provides cable executives with the latest industry news and insights, hosts the annual awards ceremony to recognize cable's top shows, people and entertainment icons. This year, CableFAX judges selected finalists in more than 38 categories including Best Show or Series, Best Actor/Actress/Host, Best Director, Best Drama and the Hall of Fame inductees.

Trish Ragsdale, FamilyNet's Executive Producer of Original Productions, accepted two honorable mention awards; one for "EveryDay" with Marcus & Lisa, a mid-morning talk show which aired on the network in 2008 through early 2009, and another for Judie Byrd's Kitchen, a cooking series hosted by culinary expert Judie Byrd. Each program was nominated as a finalist in the "best show or series" category for a faith and values/religious network.

Other network award recipients included AMC for Breaking Bad and Mad Men; History Channel, 102 Minutes That Changed America; Travel Channel, Man V. Food and Bizarre Foods with Andrew Zimmern; and Disney Channel's, Handy Manny to name a few. James Lipton, Inside the Actors Studio; Dan Rather, Dan Rather Reports on HDNet; John Hendricks, founder and chairman of Discovery Communications and Suze Orman, The Suze Orman Show attended the awards ceremony.
